FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE APPLICATION POLICY

(Adopted by City Council March 2012) (REV 08MAR24)

Program Registration Forms WILL NOT BE accepted with Financial Assistance Applications

- 1. In accordance with City Council Policy §53; approved February 21, 2012, the following procedure will be followed in the disbursement of Fee Waivers for our programs.
- 2. The Parent/Legal Guardian applying for financial assistant must be a Saco resident.
- 3. The total amount of Fee Waivers the Department is authorized to award cannot exceed 6% of the Parks & Recreation Department's budgeted revenues for the fiscal year.
 - a. Half of this amount shall be reserved for programs running during the school year with the other half being reserved for programs running in the summer.
 - b. Fee Waiver awards will be given out based on highest qualifying need first.
 - i. Awards will first be given out to applicants applying for an entire program length (i.e. all weeks of Summer Camp) starting with those that qualify for the 75% level and working down to the 50 and 25 percent levels progressively; awarded in the order those applications are received, as funds allow.
 - ii. Awards will next be given to applicants applying for partial program lengths starting with those that qualify for the 75% level and working down to the 50 and 25 percent levels progressively; awarded in the order those applications are received, if funds allow.
 - c. If an applicant was previously awarded a fee waiver award and did not use at least 50% of that award, they are not eligible for the next fee waiver application period.
- 4. Contractual Programs or Programs with fees less than $55.00 are not eligible for the Fee Waiver Program.
- 5. Submitting: for the 2024-2025 season, we are accepting applications by mail or in person at the Saco Community Center. For mail, send completed applications and all appropriate documentation to: Saco Community Center 75 Franklin St., Saco, ME 04072.
- 6. Completing your form: In order to be considered for a fee waiver or scholarship the Saco Parks & Recreation Financial Assistance Application must be filled out completely and have all mandatory financial information provided. This includes back up documentation such as receipts or invoices, examples noted below. Copies of documentation must be included with your mailed application. Failure to complete the Financial Assistance Application completely and provide copies of all necessary documentation will result in a reduced fee waiver entitlement or disqualification from the process.
- 7. Back up documentation includes, but is not limited to;
 - a. Copy of both parent's (in the household) State or Federal income tax return (MANDATORY)
 - b. Copy of both parent's (in the household) last pay stub (MANDATORY)
 - c. Copies of any bills being declared are optional but are needed for substantiation, such as;
 - i. Mortgage or Rent Statement
 - ii. Electrical Bill
 - iii. Home Heating Oil or Propane Bill

- iv. Home & Auto Insurance Statement
- v. Automobile Payment Statement
- vi. Telephone Bill
- 8. Your application will be processed within 7 business days from the date it is received.
- 9. A Letter of Determination will be issued from the Parks and Recreation Director based on the forms' completion and attached documentation. This Letter of Determination will be mailed AND emailed to the applicant requesting the financial assistance. If awarded a fee waiver a Fee Waiver Payment Plan Breakdown will be included with the notification, showing the payment schedule and amounts due
- 10. To complete the fee waiver process you must acknowledge the Fee Waiver Payment Plan Breakdown form by responding to the email offer that you accept the Fee Waiver arrangement.
- 11. To complete enrollment for the program, you will be invoiced for your fee waiver through your household account at www.sacorec.com; the first payment must be paid through your online account. In addition you must submit the appropriate Registration forms for the participant(s) for the program you are enrolling for. Your child will not be enrolled in the program until the registration procedure has been completed.
- 12. Failure to keep current with the agreed upon Fee Waiver Payment Plan Breakdown will result in the removal of the participant(s) from the program until the payment plan has been brought up to date.
- 13. Changes and/or updates to this policy may be made at any time and without notice by the City of Saco.
